

ANDREW SCHETTER — Aviation Industry Resume

---

SUMMARY

---

Safety-focused private pilot with 180+ hours of total flight time and a strong mix of aviation operations, technical troubleshooting, and mechanical experience. Background includes CRM, ADM, ATC communications, and nearly a decade of system-building and diagnostics experience.

CERTIFICATIONS

---

FAA Private Pilot — ASEL (Issued 2024)
High-Performance & Complex Endorsements
180+ Total Flight Hours

AVIATION & TECHNICAL SKILLS

---

- ATC communication & phraseology
- CRM & ADM
- Weather & airspace knowledge
- Mechanical/electrical troubleshooting
- Simulation system configuration
- Strong situational awareness & safety discipline

TECHNICAL & OPERATIONAL BACKGROUND

---

AFJROTC Flight Simulation Technology Lead (2017–2021)

Built and maintained flight simulation systems supporting cadet aviation training.

Independent Technology Services (2015–Present)

Built and repaired custom computers, diagnosed complex OS/hardware issues, and provided technical support.

Entrepreneurial Sales & Service Projects (2017–2022)

Operated multiple small resale ventures with strong profit margins, developing pricing, sourcing, and negotiation skills.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

---

Freelance Technician — Orangevale, CA (2023–2025)

Repaired engines, drivetrains, mechanical systems, and electrical components.

Dave's European Motors — Diagnostic Technician (2022–2023)

Diagnosed electronic systems using VCDS/Autologic and interpreted fault data.

AutoZone — Commercial Specialist (2021–2022)

Coordinated B2B operations, deliveries, and technical product support.

EDUCATION

---

University of Nevada, Reno — Business Administration (IS & Accounting)

Sierra College — AS-T Administration of Justice

STRENGTHS

---

Safety-first mindset • Calm under pressure • Mechanical intuition • Communication • Adaptable